WAS INSOLENT TO THE GUARD

Was Reason Fractious Convict Was Given a Whipping.

MOST TOO SEVERE

Is the Report of the Legislative Committee Investigating Simeon Ellis Case.

Columbia, Jan. 31.—That Simeon Ellis, the life-terminer in the State penitentiary, whom the governor of the state last year alleged was cruelly whipped and also punished by an electric battery, was indeed severely whipped, but not treated with the battery, is the substance of the report of the senate committee on penal and charitable institutions, which investigated the matter during the last of the legislature session.

Ellis, it will be recalled, was punished for speaking to the governor and for disobeying the guard of a chain-gang in doing so. The report says that Ellis was not a good prisoner and had been disobedient at other times; that he wilfully disobeyed the guard and was whipped for so doing.

Text of Report
The report of the committee follows:

"Simeon Ellis was a life prisoner in the State penitentiary and was working at the time of the punishment administered to him under a guard of the penitentiary on the streets of the city of Columbia.

"The testimony taken in the case shows that Simeon Ellis asked the guard to be allowed to speak to the governor, who was at the time passing on the street, and the guard refused to allow him to speak to the governor, the guard claiming that he had no right to allow prisoners to speak to any one while on duty. Ellis told the guard that he would speak to the governor anyway, and thereupon threw down the tool with which he was working and went and spoke to the governor, in defiance of the order of the guard who had Ellis in his custody. This happened on Saturday. On Sunday following the guard reported the matter to Capt. Sondley and he ordered Simeon Ellis to be whipped. The whipping was administered by Mr. Wilson.

"The committee made a physical examination of the prisoner on Wednesday the 25th of February, 1913, and found signs of the whipping on the back of the prisoner, the skin being plainly discolored. He was whipped on Sunday and this examination was made on the Wednesday following.

"It is admitted by all that institutions of this kind must have rules and regulations for the conduct of the prisoners and that these rules must be enforced; it is necessary to apply punishment according to the grade of the offense, but at the same time the punishment should be administered judiciously and conservatively. Simeon Ellis, according to the testimony, was not a good prisoner, and had been disobedient at other times. He wilfully disobeyed the order of the guard, and was whipped for so doing.

Whipping Too Severe.
"Your committee finds that he was very severely whipped. This is the conclusion reached on this point by the committee on the testimony submitted to the committee and your committee would advise against whipping of such severity in the future.

"The next issue raised by the message of the governor is: Was the electric battery applied for treatment, or for punishment?

"Your committee finds in this case that the electric battery was not applied for torture or punishment, but for treatment. The prisoner was subject to spells or fits, according to the testimony, and whether the doctor was right or wrong in his diagnosis of the case or as to the remedy to be applied, the committee is of the opinion that the purpose of the use of the electric battery in this instance was for treatment. Ellis had been treated for this ailment before by application of the electric battery. The electric battery was applied in this instance on Monday morning after the whipping on Sunday, the testimony conclusively shows that he was taken with one of these spells on Monday and carried to the hospital for treatment, when the electric battery was applied.

"The attention of the senate is directed to the testimony taken in this case, which is herewith submitted, and to the message of the governor referring to this matter."

(The report is signed, "G. K. Laney, chairman.")

BEAUTIFUL LOTS BEING SOLD

An ad in today's paper calls attention to the fact that the Anderson Real Estate & Investment Co. are offering 70 foot lots, inside the city limits as low as $700.00 and they say they are nice lots. These people say this is what keeps prices down. When the price gets so high that the people of moderate means can't buy them, the real estate men get busy and open up a new place and sell them cheap.

"College View" is a beautiful section and the next time you go to walk on to Ada, you will go up Past street and pass the high school, you will find a beautiful new street, "Seminary Avenue" which has been opened leading over toward the college.

NEW LEAGUE WAS ONLY PIPE DREAM

Columbia and Augusta Are Both to Get Back in the Sally League.

All indications now are that the proposed Georgia-Carolina baseball league was a pipe dream, and nothing more. It was said yesterday by fans who should know and also published in Columbia and Augusta newspapers that those two towns will again enter the South Atlantic league having agreed to permit such a step.

The fact that the new league will not be formed can hardly cause much disappointment in Anderson, since little interest had been manifested here, and it did not seem that the people of this place wanted to get into such an association.

However, the fans around town seem to think that there may yet be baseball in Anderson, the trolley league idea still being feasible. This plan has by no means been abandoned. Most of the towns mentioned would have preferred being in the Georgia-Carolina association, but if that step is now impossible, they will doubtless welcome the opportunity to form the other association.

"BIG BILL" KING ILL.
Former Sheriff Sustains a Serious Stroke.

W. B. King, former sheriff of Anderson county, is seriously ill at his home a few miles from the city, suffering with something resembling apoplexy. There seems to be some doubt as to whether his trouble is from that cause or is from paralysis, and his hundreds of friends in all parts of the county trust that it may be neither.

It was said last night that the patient was a little better and seemed to be slowly improved. "Big Bill" King is one of the best loved men in the State.
